

KINDER NEWS

Highlights from This Week, June 5, 2009

Charter School
Of Morgan Hill

Wow! Is this really the last Kinder News of the year? Your children have learned so much and grown into first graders this year. You should be very proud of their accomplishments. Their skills are new to them and they will need to continue to practice reading, using number skills and sight words throughout the summer to be ready to go in the fall.

Next week, Monday is Water Day in PE. Students need to bring a change of clothes or a bathing suit and a towel. Children without these items will not be able to participate in this fun activity. Monday is also Green Day (all about the environment) in our classrooms. Tuesday is Bubble Day with bubble fun and root beer floats. It is also the last day to turn in Happy Bears, a prize for everyone! Wednesday is a minimum day with an awards ceremony for the entire school at 10:30-11:30. Children will return to class for the last 30 minutes to say goodbye.

A Note from Miss Heather...

I can't believe that it has been another school year already! I have enjoyed facilitating and watching your kids' creative growth.

I'm already looking forward to enjoying them next year! Thank you to all parents who came in and helped me with art classes. You were terrific!

Looking Ahead...

HOMEWORK:

- Moon Journal Finale - Please see the back of the Kinder News for this last homework assignment. An original work of art due Monday, June 8th.

REMINDERS:

- Water Day Monday; bring a swimsuit or change of clothes and towel.
- Tuesday, turn in all happy bears.
- Wednesday is a minimum day.

Thank you...

For all you have done to support your child, your teacher and CSMH during the 2008-2009 school year.
